The Resurrection Mural – On TV!

Temecula, CA – During Easter, Ron DiCianni and the Resurrection Mural were featured on the premiere Christian television broadcast, The 700 Club. A long time guest of the program, Ron was able to present the "behind the scenes" explanation of the mural and an overview of the characters and more importantly the subject matter.

The Resurrection Mural is one of Ron's seminal paintings showing the very moment when Jesus Christ emerged triumphant from the Tomb. Commissioned for a museum in Dallas, this mural is the largest contemporary Fine Art depiction of Christ's Resurrection in the world.

The 700 Club's interview with Ron is available during broadcast of the program on CBN and affiliate stations as well as re-broadcast on most major Christian networks and local access channels. In addition, the interview can be viewed at The 700 Club's website: www.700Club.com or on Tapestry's Blog: www.TapestryProductions.com/blog.

We are thankful to The 700 Club for this excellent feature, their continued investment in Ron's work and more importantly the mission of Reclaiming the Arts for Christ.

About the Artist Ron DiCianni is one of the most celebrated Fine Artists in America. After several successful decades in commercial illustration with Fortune 500 companies, Ron began to exclusively paint Scriptural themes with the mission of Reclaiming the Arts for Christ. Ron DiCianni's work is recognized by both secular and Christian art connoisseurs to be some of the best ever produced and he ranks as one of the best selling artists of all time. A classically trained artist, Ron's past works include the best selling Spiritual Warfare & In the Wilderness as well as paintings for the President of the United States, The United States Olympic Committee and the Assemblies of God World Headquarters. His work is represented in galleries nationwide and he has been featured in countless Christian and secular publications.

Ron DiCianni is available for interviews and the mural is available to be reproduced with permission.
